ANNEX

Resolution of the Democratic Constituent Congress of Peru on human rights

(Lima, 22 February 1993)

"The undersigned Members of Congress:

Propose the adoption of the following resolution:

'The Congress resolves:

To declare that there is no systematic violation of human rights in Peru as a consequence of government policy and to repudiate any campaign aimed at spreading false ideas about the actual conditions obtaining in the country;

To pledge that it will responsibly investigate any human rights violations that have occurred in the country in the past or that may occur with a view to the punishment of the perpetrators of such violations by the appropriate judicial authorities;

To declare that it will take steps to review, amend or repeal, as appropriate, any provisions enacted by other authorities that may constitute infringements of other human rights recognized in the Constitution of Peru and international agreements for the protection of the human person to which Peru is a party;

To issue this resolution as a parliamentary document and to publicize it widely both inside Peru and abroad.'"
